DARK HORSE DOWNEY WORKING TO FRONT

Cheatham continues to head the Marathon competition list and has now 114 votes against his name. He is a very firm favorite and is generally expected to win the race with something to spare.

The sensation of yesterday's voting was the strong support accorded Downey, whose name only appeared in the list yesterday. Next to Cheatham he was most strongly fancied yesterday and closed with 33 votes to his credit.

Sam Hop, Scharsch, Nelson, Ayres, Kuhns, Lebreseu, Walsh and Kaoo all received many votes and the latter is rapidly working his way up among the leaders. Kaoo was once a great long distance runner, being known all over Oahu as "The Waiaina Horse."

Other probable competitors who received support worth mentioning were: Cockburn, Kops, Doss, Jack Frost, and D. Mahukona.

Newcomers in the list are M. Smith, E. W. Graves, J. Pulaa and L. Kaupike, the latter of whom started off with a small boom.

The standing of the contestants to date is as follows:

TWO NOTABLE WITHDRAWALS

Two notable withdrawals have been made from the Marathon race. P. A. Bechert will be unable to take part owing to a sore foot which his doctor advises him to nurse.

Henry Chillingworth called at The Star office this morning and stated that he would not be a starter in the race owing to objection on the part of his parents.

Both Bechert and Chillingworth were strongly fancied to win the race and their withdrawal is much to be regretted, although it gives the race a much more open look.

Despite reports to the contrary H. M. Ayres will start with the rest of

F. W. Graves..... 1
L. Kaupike..... 6
J. Pulaa..... 1

The contest will remain open till next Saturday and changes in the standing of the intending competitors will be published every day this week.

Voting in the Marathon competition was very brisk yesterday and a number of notable changes were made in the list of competitors.

Henry Chillingworth received more votes than anyone else and is now in second place, close behind Cheatham.

Cheatham, Frank Bechert and P. Scharsch were the next best gainers. Sam Hop, Nelson, Walsh and Ayres also received fair support.

Dal Fahy and Tom Honan each received a few votes, as did Kops, Jackson, Lebreseu and Schuman.

New blood was introduced into the competition in the shape of Messrs. Grace, Downey, D. Mahukona and Melvin. Downey starts with five votes to his credit and Mahukona with three.

The contest furnishes a chance for anyone who has an opinion as to what men will be first home or what time the race will be won in, to earn a couple of prizes well worth winning. It costs nothing to enter. All that is necessary is to fill in the appended form and forward same to the Sporting Editor of The Hawaiian Star.

The sender of the list corresponding most closely with the placings of the first six men in the race will receive $10.

The nearest estimate to the actual time made in the race will gain for the sender a prize of $5.00.

There is no limit to the guesses allowed but a fresh coupon must be filled out in every case. In case of a tie the coupon bearing the prior date will win.

The contest closes on Saturday March 13 at noon.

The distance of the course from Honolulu to Haleiwa is about 28 miles.

The official list of entries is as follows:

Chas. M. Albrecht, Geo. H. Nelson	9
John S. Nascento, Maurice Lebreseu	15
Harry Gorman, John Kops, Fred W. Graves, Herbert Cordelero (Ewa), E. M. Cheatham, Antone Kaoo, Sam Hop (for Mu Hock Society), William Schumann, T. Downey, Wilson Feagler	5
A. K. Broderick, C. A. Rickard, Joseph Honan, A. Husey, Manuel Freitas, P. A. Moore, E. N. G. Jackson, E. R. Davis, L. Rosa, A. Timas, C. Hayes, J. B. Enos, F. Scharsch, J. Doss, Frank H. BOTH BOXERS IN EARNEST

People sending in guesses for The Star's Marathon competition, by mail, must affix a two-cent stamp. This precaution on their part will save annoyance and delay.

Mike Paton, the heavyweight boxer and boiler maker, has followed Jim Jeffries example and gone into the wet goods business. He is now associated with Louis Warren at the En-core.

Bill Hurley has won. It's a mighty good thing for one Jack (Norman) Densham that Bill won't see the latter's jingle on him till he's in Frisco. Bill has a nice, easy-going disposition but the worm will turn. It's the Hurley worm, bye the bye, that feeds the bird.

There is no love lost between these two boxers and each is just aching to put it on the other, a state of affairs which delights the heart of the fan and maketh his soul glad, for verily it betokeneth tall slugging.

Peterson is working with his sparring partner Eddie Hines at the Orpheum. Sullivan is doing his stunts at Fort Shafter and has no lack of sparring partners, of whom Hercules II, craftily covered with a baseball body protector, is the lord high muck-amuck.

Peterson is a slight favorite in what little betting that has already been done. Among the crowd who don't wager but who are free to express their opinion, Peterson is strongly favored to turn the tables on Sullivan. It's money that talks, however.

The preliminaries are exciting considerable interest. Bird is a slight favorite over Kid Terry and McCullough occupies the same position over Young Sharkey.

The advance sale of seats has been exceptionally brisk and it looks as if the biggest crowd that ever poured into the Orpheum would witness Saturday night's racket.

BOWLING ALLEYS PAU

The Hotel Baths bowling alleys have been torn up, having been bought outright, and will be removed to Palama.

Many an interesting match has been played on the Hotel street alleys and it is too bad that Honolulu should be without an easily accessible alley, especially as bowling was just commencing to "catch on" here.

PUSSIES BEAT LIVE WIRES

A game of basketball played in the Y. M. C. A. last night resulted in the Pambowling Pussies defeating the Y. M. C. A. Live Wires by the score of 23 to 11.

The line up was:
Y. M. C. A.—K. Klemme c.; A. Sinclair, rf.; E. Klemme, lf.; H. Nott, lb.; M. Botello, rb.

SPORTDRIFT

A noted tennis player arrived by the S. S. Siberia in the person of Edwin S. Gee, Pay Department, U. S. A. Mr. Gee who has won many tournaments in Manila, will be stationed here permanently. He is personal clerk to Major B. B. Ray, Paymaster, U. S. A., who also arrived by the S. S. Siberia.

Sergeant Barry will send his N. G. H. nine against the All-Prestidges at the ball park next Saturday afternoon. There will be no charge for admission, which is just as well.

Mike Paton, the heavyweight boxer and boiler maker, has followed Jim Jeffries example and gone into the wet goods business. He is now associated with Louis Warren at the En-core.

WORLD REVIVAL PLANS OF THE COMING EVANGELIST

The churches of the city represented in the Ministerial Union have taken up with enthusiasm the preparation for the coming of the Rev. J. Wilbur Chapman, America's most distinguished evangelist.

Dr. Chapman and Mr. Alexander, the famous gospel singer who accompanies him will be in Honolulu April 1st and 2nd, en route to Australia where they open a 3 month's evangelistic campaign.

It is proposed to hold a great, union, evangelistic meeting—if time permits perhaps two meetings, in Central Union church while they are here. These meetings will serve as an introduction to a series of meetings which the ministerial union hope they can get Dr. Chapman and Mr. Alexander to hold in Honolulu upon their return from Australia. Never before writes history has the city of Boston and its suburbs been roused to so high a pitch as in the great campaign which Dr. Chapman is just closing there now.

Unlike other great evangelists Dr. Chapman plans not one big meeting but scores of meetings held simultaneously throughout the city. In this way a great many more people are reached than by the single meeting.

After finishing the Boston campaign that is now in progress the Rev. Dr. J. Wilbur Chapman is to start on a journey of world-wide evangelism. The method by which they will work is called the "simultaneous revival" which was first put into operation in Pittsburg six years ago and continued in many large cities of the United States and Canada. The campaign now in Boston is said to employ one hundred evangelists and pastors in assisting Dr. Chapman. Each district has a special soloist and choir, and Mr. Alexander is said to have an unusual number of voices in his central choir. Nearly all the churches of Boston are actively helping. The Congregationalist and Christian World (Boston) has this statement:

"The fight is on. After weeks of agitation and provision, the Church forces of Boston have united with the Chapman-Alexander corps in an attack upon the city's indifferent and unchurched. Two dozen outposts and a central base of operations describe the scope of the battle area; and among the twenty-five division leaders are eleven Congregationalists. The first meetings were held on the evening of January 26 in these outlying groups, and the following noon, Dr. Chapman and Mr. Alexander began the central meetings with a monster mass-meeting in Tremont Temple. Up to the time of going to press, the interest aroused by the simultaneous method has shown no signs of flagging. The attendance appears to be gradually increasing, showing in the districts from 600 to 1,200 at the evening services, and at the Tremont Temple meetings overflowing congregations."

The New York Evening Post gives the following statement of the contemplated revival journey to begin March 24:

"The Itinerary includes Australia, China, Japan, Korea, the Philippines, and Europe. In the party will be Charles M. Alexander, the singing evangelist, who toured the world with the Rev. Dr. R. A. Torrey; Mrs. Alexander, Robert Harkness, composer of Gospel hymns, and Mr. and Mrs. William Asher, the 'saloon evangelists.' The latter will take with them the little organ which was presented to them by the saloon men of Minneapolis. It is a small hand affair, which they can carry through the streets. The Rev. Dr. Ford C. Ottmon, an evangelist, will also be a member of the party."

"Various missionary boards will be represented in this movement, but particularly those of the Presbyterian Church, as Dr. Chapman is national corresponding secretary of the evangelistic committee of the Presbyterian Church. The work, however, is non-sectarian in character."

"In the old-fashioned revival in the days of Moody and Sankey, people gathered in one big central hall to hear the gospel, and from 8,000 to 10,000 people were attracted to the services. This simultaneous campaign, however, is on a much vaster scale. Each city visited will be divided into sections, with an evangelist or helper for each section. All the churches, Young Men's Christian Associations, and other Christian organizations will prepare months ahead for the evangelists and work with them when they arrive. Dr. Chapman and Mr. Alexander will, of course, conduct the great central meeting in the city hall or auditorium in each place, but other evangelists and pastors will hold similar services at the same hour. In the saloons, or in jails or penitentiaries, Mr. and Mrs. Asher will hold services."

"The campaign will not only be an impetus to Christian churches in the Orient, but will extend the gospel to hundreds of thousands who have never heard the Word. In Hongkong alone more young men pass in and out than in any port on the globe, and to most of them in the Christian religion probably will be a new topic."—Literary Digest.
